ARE YOU READY FOR COLLEGE???

Student's Step-By-Step Planning Guide

Discover the possibilities for life after high school. If you've decided to attend college, or even if you're not sure yet, you'll find this planning guide helpful as you prepare for the career of your dreams. REMEMBER. . . DON'T WAIT, START NOW!

START NOW!

Junior Year - Fall

- Start investigating post-high school education opportunities and research the different types of schools and training opportunities available.
- Choose a specific career that you'd like to pursue and visit with your high school guidance counselor regarding schools that will fulfill your educational and career goals.
- Review your recent and current class schedules with your school counselor to verify that you have taken, or are taking, those classes that will help you succeed in college and in your career.
- Attend career and college fairs and presentations.
- List the schools you are considering and send for literature. Request their admissions and financial aid information also. Find out if the school requires ACT or SAT. Also ask how many applications they require, such as for admission, financial aid, and scholarships.
- Maintain good records during this entire process. Make copies of everything you send.
- Read all college materials you receive carefully. Decide what you want from an institution: major, location, athletics, reputation, etc. Then, compare the requirements for admission and financial aid. (The College Comparison Sheet, found on the next page, should be helpful to you.)
- If you did not take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) in the 10th grade, take it now to prepare for college admissions tests and to establish eligibility for the National Merit Scholarship.
- Acquire a study guide for the ACT/SAT and start to prepare for the test.

Junior Year - Spring

- Take the SAT and/or ACT (depending on what is required by the institutions you're interested in attending.) Your high school guidance counselor can provide you with the test dates and descriptive brochures.
- Start to narrow your list of post-high school options. Make plans to visit the facilities that are most appealing to you.
- Research scholarship opportunities and visit at least two types of colleges; i.e., large/small, community college/university, academic/technical.
- Contact organizations sponsoring scholarships that you're eligible for and request information.
- Develop a resume of high school activities and awards, if you haven't already done so, and update as needed.
- Find a summer job to set aside money for school.
- Start submitting applications to schools of your choice. Some colleges will accept applications once your junior year is completed. Keep copies of everything you send.

Senior Year - Fall

- Double check that you are taking the courses that will meet the admissions requirements of the post-high school institution that you are planning to attend.
- Take the SAT or ACT again if you need a higher score to meet admission requirements, to be eligible for certain scholarships, or if you didn't take it your junior year.
- Apply to the colleges you are considering EARLY. Generally, during December, January, or February you may apply for regular admission.
- Watch for important scholarship and financial aid information and visit your counselor for scholarship opportunities and applications. Be aware of deadlines and plan accordingly.
- Think about what you want to say in your college essay.
- Ask teachers to write letters of recommendation for you if they are required for admission or scholarships.

Senior Year - Winter

- Work with your parents to collect financial aid information and attend financial aid workshops together.
- Pick up a financial aid application and submit. The most commonly used form in Idaho to seek federal financial aid is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Get it ready and mail the FAFSA after January 1. You may also need to fill out a separate form for institutional or state aid.
- Keep working on scholarship and financial aid applications. Remember to respond immediately to any requests for more information or for additional documents in your financial aid application.
- Who's home from college for the holidays? Visit with them about their college experience.
- Remind your parents to prepare their income tax statements as early as possible, since a photocopy of their return must be sent to most schools to which you have applied.

Senior Year - Spring

- Read all of your mail!! There may be important news.
- You should be hearing from colleges now. After you receive letters of acceptance and financial aid awards, decide which school you'll attend.
- Mail in your acceptance form and deposit check as soon as possible. Pay attention to all deadlines and make sure that your applications are sent in on time. Ask about campus housing deadlines, specifically, because student housing fills up quickly.
- Review the financial aid package of the school of your choice with your parents. Be sure you understand each type of aid offered. Schedule an appointment with the school's financial aid director if you have questions. Don't forget to sign the financial aid award letter and return it by the deadline.
- Notify the financial aid office of the scholarships that you are receiving.
- Decline offers received from other institutions or organizations in writing.
- Complete any separate applications for loans you decide to accept.
- Participate in orientation programs for incoming freshmen offered by the school of your choice.

Congratulations on graduating from high school and good luck in your new adventure!

Academic Information

Since its founding in 1891, Albertson College of Idaho has had a reputation for preparing students for success through a rigorous academic program grounded in the liberal arts and sciences. While the academic course work is challenging, you will have all the support you need to succeed. One the most distinctive aspects about Albertson College of Idaho are the relationships between students and professors. With an average class size of 10 and there is one full-time faculty member for every 11 students, you will never be a nameless face. Perhaps more importantly, Albertson College of Idaho professors are dedicated to teaching, using their research as a tool to ensure their students have the very best education. At ACI students interact with professors in the classroom and develop friendships with teachers who often become mentors for life.

Albertson College of Idaho's student focus extends well beyond the walls of the classroom. Students serve on every governing board and committee. Here students have the opportunity to shape college policy and leave a permanent mark on the institution. For example, last year a student committee worked to institute a campus wide honor code. After a thoroughly researched proposal was presented, the student body voted to endorse the honor code and the committee won the support of the faculty, staff and board of trustees.

Student Success: Albertson College of Idaho has a proven track record of providing students with the tools needed to find success in their chosen field or to continue their education in the country's top graduate programs. About half of all ACI graduates decide to go on to pursue a graduate degree in their field. In the class of 2006, students were accepted to several top graduate programs including Harvard Law School, Duke, the University of San Francisco, and Syracuse University. Dedicated faculty and ACI's Center for Experiential Learning help students obtain internships and, after graduation, assist with career placement. Recent graduates of the college have gone on to work for Ernst & Young, Microsoft, the Mayo Clinic, and the Centers for Disease Control, just to name a few.

Travel: Learning extends well beyond the classroom at Albertson College of Idaho. The college's unique schedule provides many opportunities for travel. During the winter term students are invited to broaden their horizons during faculty-led study-abroad trips. Students have recently studied in Thailand, London, Australia, Costa Rica, France, and Germany. From the economics of France to the ecology of the Australian rain-forest, students conduct intensive academic research in the field with the guidance of faculty members and gain a real-world understanding of textbook material. Full-year international exchanges are also available.

Winter Term: The academic year consists of two 12-week semesters (fall and spring) with a six-week winter term. There is also a week long break every six weeks. The winter term provides students with a variety of educational opportunities including interdisciplinary and uniquely themed classes. Students generally take two classes during the term, or they may opt to participate in a faculty-led study-abroad trip.

Advanced Placement: AP test scores are generally accepted with a score of three or four. Please call the Office of Admissions for more details.

2005/06 Freshman Class Profile

- Average GPA 3.6
- Average ACT 26
- Average SAT 1140

Beyond the Classroom Campus Clubs/ Organizations

With more than 60 student organizations, something is always happening on campus. The organizations range from improv theatre clubs to the service group Circle K International. Students will also find an active, Greek community with six national fraternities and sororities, and one local sorority active on campus. The Campus Ministries program allows students to continue to grow in faith during their academic career. The program is non-denominational and offers late night worship services, small-group Bible study and service opportunities.

Cultural Events and Entertainment

At Albertson College of Idaho, learning continues well beyond class time, and often during the fun and excitement of campus activities. Options run the gamut from student-run programming to professional performance troupes. The student-elected Program Council plans events ranging from concerts and comedians to Homecoming and Spring Fling. The International Student Organization gives students the opportunity to explore other cultures through the exchange ideas over traditional foods during international 'snack feeds.' The Caldwell Fine Arts brings world renowned musicians and entertainers to the Albertson College of Idaho campus and invites students to attend the performances.

Housing

The residential experience is a vital component of the larger Albertson College of Idaho experience. It is for this reason students are required to live on campus for the first two years, with many students choosing to remain on campus for their entire college career. The campus has four co-ed residence halls with both single and double rooms available. Juniors and seniors have the option of living in a traditional residence hall or in one of two on-campus apartment buildings. The freshman class lives in one residence hall as part of the first year experience. All halls are equipped with full kitchens, at least one computer lab, a laundry room, and common lounges. All rooms have their own air conditioning and heating units.

Sports and Recreation

ACI students are just as competitive on the playing field as they are in the classroom. With 18 intercollegiate sports, there are plenty of opportunities to get in the game as a team member or as a screaming 'Yote fan. The college competes in the NAIA in men's and women's soccer, long distance running, track and field, swimming, skiing, snowboarding, basketball and golf; men's baseball; and women's volleyball, softball, and tennis. Students also have the option of participating in the intramurals program or on the club lacrosse teams. An alternative to organized sports, and an opportunity to explore the great outdoors, can be found in the Outdoor Program (OP). The OP is a student run program that provides equipment, training, and guided trips into Idaho's wilderness. Activities include rock climbing, kayaking, hiking, mountain biking, camping, and white-water rafting.

Admission Information

Students who are leaders both inside the classroom and among their peers are encouraged to apply to Albertson College of Idaho. The college strives to admit students who will benefit from the personal attention offered in a rigorous academic setting. Admission is offered on a rolling basis until the class is full. An early application option is offered to students between the summer of their junior and senior year. While the application gives students the benefit of an early application and scholarship decisions, it does not commit the student to attending the college.

Prospective Students Must Submit

- Albertson College of Idaho or Common Application.
- $50 Application fee
- Official high school transcript
- ACT or SAT scores
- Recommendation
- Personal Essay

Financial Aid

Albertson College of Idaho is committed to providing access to all qualified students.

- 98 percent of students receive some form of financial aid or scholarship
- Students with a proven track record in the classroom are rewarded for their work with merit-based scholarships
- The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is required to help determine student need.

Types of Awards

- Merit Awards are given based on GPA, ACT or SAT scores, essays and recommendations
- Performance based awards are available for art, music, theatre, leadership, debate, and athletics. A try-out, audition, or additional application materials may be required.
- Need-based Aid is awarded after the FAFSA is submitted
- Kathryn Albertson Scholar Day is an on-campus scholarship competition in the fall

Campus Visits

Albertson College of Idaho highly encourages students and parents to visit the campus to ensure that the college is the right fit. The best time to visit campus is during the week when classes are in session. This gives visitors the opportunity to sit in on a class, meet professors and students, and observe campus life on a normal day. Calling ahead to schedule a visit is recommended, and allows the visit center to personally tailor the visit to fit the student's interests.

HOW DO I AVOID SCHOLARSHIP SCAMS?

If you have to pay money to get money, it's probably a scam.

Finding financial aid is no simple task. Financial aid experts advise students to be prepared to put in hours of research and paperwork. Unfortunately, many students and their families are overwhelmed by the work involved and are still unaware of the free sources of financial aid information. They end up paying hundreds of dollars to companies offering to help them find money for college. These services use information about the student and family to provide information about scholarships for which the student "may" be eligible. In addition to providing scholarship source lists, some of these services claim to actually help with students' applications, or "do the work for you."

People who have paid for such services report problems, such as out-of-date scholarship contact names and addresses, or scholarships that are strictly for people of another race, gender, or age group appearing on a "personalized" list furnished by the service. Some of the listed scholarships are for specific disciplines and many students are ineligible. Many sources on the lists actually turn out to be either loan programs or contests. Some fraudulent companies require the student to apply for every scholarship or grant on the company's list and to provide proof of rejection for each one before giving any refund, conditions that are not disclosed until after the student pays the up-front fee. Because many of the sources on the lists don't provide scholarships or have expired deadlines, it may be impossible for consumers to obtain the required rejection letters.

Be wary of scholarships with an application fee, scholarship-matching services who guarantee success, advance-fee loan scams, and sales pitches disguised as financial aid "seminars." Compare the private search company's offer to the information available before paying for this information. About 95 percent of college aid comes from state or federal government agencies. If students are suspicious of a scholarship offer, they should visit their high school guidance counselor, or those out of high school should call or visit a college financial aid office.

Idaho Attorney General's Consumer Protection Unit

According to the Idaho Office of the Attorney General, "students and their parents should realize that applying for college aid is hard work and that only the student can complete applications, gather recommendations, and write the essays required. No company is going to do all that even for a large fee."

For example:

Only students and their parents have the information required to compute "official" financial need; to accurately complete government and institutional financial aid forms; to understand their own goals and preferences; and to sort through the thousands of scholarships, loans, and grants that are available each year.

Once a list of prospective sources of aid is assembled, only the student can complete the application materials. At a minimum, there will be an application form to fill out, as well as projects, a resume, a letter, or a collection of references.

The Idaho Attorney General's Consumer Protection Unit has a tip sheet that discusses services that offer financial aid searches for a fee. You can access this tip sheet by calling 1-800-432-3545, or go online to www.state.id.us/ag. Once you access this web site, click on Consumer Protection, click Tip Sheets and Information, and then click on Searching for Scholarships.

Admission Requirements

BYU-Idaho exists to provide an education consistent with the religious and family values taught by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. We admit persons without regard to gender, race, creed, religion, national origin, age, or disability who meet the requirements; who agree to abide by the Honor Code and Dress and Grooming Standards; and who are otherwise qualified based upon available space.

In selecting a class of about 4,000 new freshmen, the admissions committee considers the following: church and seminary activity (LDS), personal commitment to living the standards, academic preparation, ACT or SAT, out-of-class activities, and an essay.

Three Track System

BYU-Idaho is operating on an extended year-round basis to allow more students the opportunity to attend. One out of every three qualified students who applied to attend Ricks College in the late 1990s was denied admission due to lack of campus resources. The need for change was obvious.

Classes are offered on three semesters: Summer, Fall, and Winter. Every student attends two semesters (a track) and is off one semester each year. On the admission application, students rank their track preferences, and admission is based on the competitiveness of each track. A student's track offer at the time of admission will be that student's permanent track for the entire time at BYU-Idaho.

There are between 10,000 and 12,000 students enrolled at BYU-Idaho for any given semester. By rotating tracks, the total number served in a calendar year is about 19,000. The Three Track System allows nearly 3,000 more students to attend each year.

Academic Information

BYU-Idaho offers approximately 15 associate and 50 baccalaureate degree programs. Bachelors degrees are divided into two categories: integrated and specialized. Specialized bachelors degrees require students to complete 70 credit hours in their major area of study. This type of degree is the usual offering at colleges and universities. Integrated bachelors degrees are an offering unique to BYU-Idaho. Integrated degrees require a student to complete 45 credit hours in a major. The remaining credits can be tailored to a student's specific postgraduate intentions and interests. Integrated degrees give students a broader learning experience. For a complete list of majors, please visit www.byui.edu/majors.

Campus Life

Life is meant to be experienced, not just observed. Student involvement is the cornerstone of a BYU-Idaho education. The Activities Program gives students opportunities to participate in a variety of organizations and events outside of class. The program is completely student run and involves 8,000 students. Elder Henry B. Eyring, former President of Ricks College, called the Activities Program, "leadership training of the broadest and most exciting kind." Whether students want to direct, coach, play, act, perform, lead, compete, serve, or just make friends, they will find an outlet in the Activities Program. To learn more, go to www.byui.edu/activities.

In addition to the Activities Program, students are involved in:

- Weekly devotionals
- Family home evening groups
- A variety of outdoor activities
- Student wards

Summer/Fall Track
April-December

Fall/Winter Track
September-April

Winter/Summer Track
January-July

- Heber J. Grant Scholarship Program. This program provides scholarships and support to students who have overcome disadvantaged backgrounds. The group of students served by the program includes first-generation college students, students from low-income homes, and so on. To learn more and to apply online, visit www.byui.edu/heberjgrant.

Housing

All single students not living at home must live in BYU-Idaho approved housing. This is limited to the BYU-Idaho on-campus residence halls or off-campus approved housing. To obtain a list of approved housing or to receive further information, visit www.byui.edu/housing or call (208) 496-1045.

New Calendar

Beginning January 2007, BYU-Idaho's academic semester will run for 14 weeks instead of 16. Classes that previously lasted 50 and 75 minutes will run 60 and 90 minutes, respectively. Longer class periods and shorter semesters will allow students, regardless of their track, to have a break lasting from mid-July to the week after Labor Day.

Academic Programs

New Saint Andrews is a limited-enrollment, non-residential college located on Friendship Square in historic downtown Moscow. The College limits enrollment to no more than 200 students so that faithful faculty, instead of ever-increasing enrollment, define the character of the College. The student-faculty ratio is about 13 to one. The College's rigorous academic program focuses exclusively on the Trivium—rhetoric, grammar, and dialectics (or logic)—and the Quadrivium—arithmetic, mathematics, astronomy (and other natural sciences), and music (and the arts). The academic year is divided into four eight-week sessions. Each week, students meet Mondays and Tuesdays for orienting lectures, then read and evaluate a number of primary works ("Great Books"), and then gather in small (4-6 students) recitation sections with their professors for review and discussion of those readings. The College requires oral exams in every subject at the end of each eight-week term. Seniors are expected to write and publicly defend before a faculty committee a thesis of original research or a creative project.

Student Profile

New Saint Andrews College has outstanding students who have been readily accepted into graduate and professional programs across the country. They rank among the top three percent nationally on the ACT and SAT exams and have the highest combined averages on those tests among all 13 Idaho public and private post-secondary institutions. NSA graduates typically score in the 80-90 percentiles on graduate exams (GRE, GMAT, LSAT, etc.). Students come from more than 30 states and four foreign countries to study at New Saint Andrews.

Admissions Requirements

New Saint Andrews only accepts 50 to 60 new students each year. The Admissions Committee gives careful attention to an applicant's record in English, languages, history, math, and social studies in order to assess the student's ability to meet the College's significant reading and writing requirements. Previous Latin and classical studies are not required, but they may prove helpful in demonstrating a student's ability and commitment to pursuing the College's classical curriculum. Go online to see other application requirements.

Financial Aid

New Saint Andrews does not participate, on principle, with any government-sponsored financial aid programs. Instead, the College is dedicated to building a base of privately funded scholarships for needy and deserving students. New Saint Andrews does not accept federal aid.

Please note that courses or degrees from this institution may not currently transfer to Idaho Public Institutions.

College Visits

The College invites prospective students and their families to visit New Saint Andrews during our fall, winter, or spring Prospective Student Weekend events, which run all day Friday through all day Monday. Visitors are welcome anytime, but these special weekend events provide prospective students and their parents with an up-close look at the College and what daily life is like in our Christian academic community. The Prospective Student Weekends include opportunities to sit in on classes, meet the faculty and students, tour our facilities and the community, attend the local churches, get answers to your questions about attending New Saint Andrews, consider your various housing options, and enjoy some events arranged to introduce you to student life here.

Prospective Student Weekends:

- October 27-30, 2006
- January 26-29, 2007
- April 13-16, 2007

Student Activities

New Saint Andrews does not have an intercollegiate athletic program, nor does it have a recreation center. Club sports and community activities include rugby, basketball, volleyball, theater, dancing, nursing home visitations, and choir groups.

Accreditation

New Saint Andrews College is an accredited member of the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (www.tracs.org), which is recognized by the United States Department of Education (USDE), the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), and the International Network for Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education (INQAAHE).

INTERSTATE PROGRAMS FOR IDAHO STUDENTS

In some specialized fields of study, Idaho has too few students to warrant the establishment of expensive programs. In order to provide Idahoans a full range of educational opportunities at a reasonable cost, the state has established the following programs in cooperation with other states.

Medicine

University of Washington School of Medicine: The Washington Wyoming-Alaska-Montana-Idaho (WWAMI) Regional Medical Education Program allows a limited number of Idaho students the opportunity to study medicine using the combined resources of the University of Idaho and the University of Washington School of Medicine in Seattle. Idaho partially subsidizes the cost of fees and tuition for each Idaho student admitted to the program. For more information, contact the WWAMI Medical Education Program, University of Idaho, Box 44207, Moscow, ID 83844, (208) 885-6696, www.webs.uidaho.edu/wwami.

University of Utah School of Medicine: A limited number of Idaho residents are admitted to this medical education program under an agreement with the University of Utah. Idaho partially subsidizes the cost of tuition and fees for each Idaho student admitted. For residency certification, contact Office of Enrollment Services, Idaho State University, P.O. Box 8270, Pocatello, ID 83209, (208) 282-3940, <http://uuhsc.utah.edu/som>.

Idaho Rural Physician Incentive Program

The 2003 Idaho Legislature established the Idaho Rural Physician Incentive Program to encourage primary care physicians to practice in medically underserved areas of the state. Beginning with the Fall 2003 semester, all first-year medical education students will be assessed a fee equal to four percent of the annual average medical support fee paid by the state. The fee collected by the State Board of Education will be deposited into the Rural Physician Incentive Fund to repay the educational debts of rural physicians who practice primary care medicine in medically underserved areas of the state that demonstrate a need for assistance in physician recruitment.

Veterinary Medicine

The Washington-Oregon-Idaho (WOI) Regional Veterinary Medical Education Program allows a limited number of Idaho students the opportunity to study veterinary medicine using the combined resources of the University of Idaho Animal and Veterinary Science Department, Caine Veterinary Teaching Center and Washington State University College of Veterinary Medicine in Pullman. Idaho partially subsidizes the cost of fees and tuition for each Idaho student admitted. For more information, contact Dr. James England, Director, Caine Veterinary Teaching Center, (208) 454-8657, or Dr. R.A. Battaglia, Head, Animal & Veterinary Science Department, University of Idaho, Moscow, ID 83844, (208) 885-6345, or AVS Dept. Web site <http://www.vetmed.wsu.edu>.

Dentistry

The Idaho Dental Education Program provides financial support for a limited number of Idaho students admitted to the School of Dentistry at Creighton University in Omaha, NE. For current information on the program, contact Dr. Jeff Ybarguen, Chair, Idaho Dental Education Program, Idaho State University, P.O. Box 8088, Pocatello, ID 83209, (208) 282-3289, <http://www.isu.edu/departments/idep>.

Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE) Programs

Under the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE), undergraduate students from Idaho may enroll in participating institutions in other western states at a reduced tuition rate. The Professional Student Exchange Program enables students to enroll in a participating out-of-state professional optometry program at a reduced cost. The Western Regional Graduate Program provides Idaho residents an opportunity to enroll at a reduced cost in certain high quality distinctive graduate programs not available in Idaho.

For more information, contact Dana Kelly, State Board of Education, P.O. Box 83720, Boise, ID 83720-0037, (208) 332-1574 or dana.kelly@osbe.gov, or WICHE's Web site at <http://www.wiche.edu>.

Idaho-Washington Reciprocity Program

The Idaho-Washington Reciprocity Program is a special cooperative effort between Idaho and Washington which permits a limited number of Idaho residents to attend Eastern Washington University or Walla Walla Community College with a partial or full waiver of non-resident tuition. First priority is given to Idaho residents who are currently enrolled or seeking enrollment in baccalaureate or graduate degree programs not available in Idaho. For more information, students should contact the Washington institution they want to attend or the Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board, 917 Lakeridge Way, Olympia, WA 98504-3430, (360) 753-7800.

Idaho State University-Utah State University Scholarship

The Idaho State University-Utah State University Scholarship permits a limited number of Idaho residents to attend Utah State University with a full non-resident tuition waiver. Additionally, the 100 Mile Radius Waiver permits students whose homes are within 100 miles of Utah State University to attend USU with a partial waiver of out-of-state tuition. For further information about these programs, contact Recruitment and Enrollment Services, Utah State University, Logan, UT 84322, (800) 488-8108, <http://www.wsu.edu/scholarships/freshmen-nonres.cfm>

Get The Cash

Apply

To apply for federal financial aid, complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form during your senior year in high school. Apply online at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/>. Make sure you are aware of important deadlines.

Look

Academic institutions are not the only agencies offering scholarships, so check with local organizations, such as: your parent's place of employment; your church; civic or community groups such as American Legion, YMCA, 4-H, Elks, Masons, Kiwanis, Jaycees, Chamber of Commerce, and Rotary; government agencies; and foundations. Libraries and the Internet are good resources to research financial aid opportunities.

Talk

Talk with your counselor about potential sources of financial aid. (See pages 44-46 for scholarship opportunities offered by the State of Idaho).

Go

Institutions offer a variety of scholarships and financial aid programs to assist students with continuing education costs. Contact the admissions and/or financial aid offices at the schools you are interested in attending to obtain information about financial aid opportunities. Idaho colleges and universities, specifically, offer a variety of scholarships and financial aid opportunities. See chart on page 46 for deadlines.

NAVIGATING THE FINANCIAL ROAD RESOURCES

Idaho Career Information System (CIS)

The Idaho Career Information System (CIS) contains up-to-date information on U.S. and Idaho scholarships, loans, and other aid sources. CIS describes thousands of different sources of financial aid — many thousands of scholarships, loans, and grants. You can also get a list of scholarships, both Idaho-based and national, that match your education plans and personal characteristics. See page 5 for more information or visit www.idahocis.org. (get a user name and password from your school counselor).

Resources for Veterans

Colleges help veterans receive their “G.I. Bill” education benefits through their “Certifying Official” and “Veteran’s Affairs” offices, frequently associated with the Registrar’s or Financial Aid Offices at colleges and universities. Students eligible to receive VA education benefits should contact that office prior to registration to assure timely submission of claims. The Idaho Department of Education at (208) 332-6921 must approve each program offered by a school or company. If you want to know if you may receive benefits for a specific program, contact the nearest VA regional office at 1-800-827-1000.

FINANCIAL AID OPPORTUNITIES IN IDAHO

NEW FEDERAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Idaho high school students who take rigorous classes may be eligible to receive additional Pell Grant money under a new federal law.

The new program will allow Idaho Pell Grant recipients to take advantage of an additional $2,050 per individual in federal aid if they complete "academically rigorous" classes in high school. The additional aid comes to students in their freshman and sophomore years. The provision is part of President Bush's Academic Competitiveness Grant Program (ACG). There are a variety of ways to be eligible for the ACG program, check out:

<http://www.ed.gov/admins/finaid/about/ac-smart/state-programs06.html>.

Students can also take advantage of the new National SMART Grants. To qualify, students must also be eligible for a Federal Pell Grant and be enrolled in a four year degree program. This program is for students in their third or fourth academic year and majoring in mathematics, science, technology, engineering or a critical foreign language such as Arabic, Chinese, Korean, Japanese or Russian. Students must also have a 3.0 GPA. If you think you might qualify for SMART grant consideration, contact the college or university you attend.

The image features three black silhouettes of people in mid-air, jumping or dancing joyfully. They are positioned against a vibrant, swirling background of concentric circles in shades of blue, purple, and pink, creating a sense of motion and energy. The figures are spread across the frame: one on the left, one in the center, and one on the right.
